

Toilet Performance Results

The Flush Performance Index (FPI) was calculated from the number of sponges and pieces of paper remaining in a toilet under various levels of "loading" of material. For the complete report and further details, visit www.nahbrc.org

